

Sapphire Dragonfly Ministries Warfare Prayer

Written by Prophetess S. 'Nikki' McAllister-Creque

Lord, I come before thee as the wicked have become comfortable attacking me and my brethren.

Those who call me enemy are blind in spirit and have started to believe lies of the devil, that they shall gain a victory over you through me.

But you Lord whom I worship dawn to dusk reside in me and all that I do.
You receive my first thought of the day and my last prayer of the night.

I ask you Lord to make my tongue as sharp as Micheal's blade to speak perseverance, strength and victory over all weapons formed against me and my brethren's faith.

Let all illnesses afflicting our bodies, minds, and souls be healed in this and subsequent lifetimes across all dimensions of time and space.

I call on Yeshua, your son, the Living Messiah, to guide me and show discernment into all the actions and words I must speak to bring victorious changes in my life and on my path in your name.

My Lord and Creator, Your Word says that no weapon formed against me will prosper, and I declare it be so in your sons name.

You said that trouble will not arise a second time, so I know that when you stand up for me that all against me shall be sat down.

I declare in Yeshua's name that satan nor those who follow in his footsteps and use witchcraft to oppress me, will not be able to make trouble for me, my loved ones or my brethren in faith again.

Warfare Prayer

Written by
Prophetess S. 'Nikki' McAllister-Creque

All battles shall be won and all my oppressors shall all be blanketed in your vengeance and wrath for however long you will it, Lord Our Creator.

Be it so and so shall it be.
Awemain.
